Constable Interferes.

The pleasure of a large number of Washington sportsmen who gathered at Steubener's road house, on the Bladenburg turnpike, near Brentwood, Md., Wednesday evening to witness a dog and cock fight, was brought to an abrupt termination by the appearance of Constable Wallace C. Raybold of Bladensburg district. No ar-rests were made, however. The contests were declared off by the proprietor of the establishment and the owners of the dogs and birds, under threat of arrest if the Runaway Boys in Custody.

THATS THE TIME

WHEN PROPER FOOD IS NECESSARY.

Proper food is never more necessary than when recovering from a wasting sickness, when overeating would be fatal, and yet the body needs nourishment and plenty of it.

At this time the condensed food Grape-Nuts is shown to be one's most powerful friend. Four teaspoonfuls of Grape-Nuts and cream will sustain a healthy man for half a day, and a less quantity in warm milk will build up the convalescent wonderfully. No stomach is too weak to digest and relish Grape-Nuts. "I was taken sick with typhoid fever, and every one who has had this disease knows how weak and lifeless a person feels when beginning to recuperate.

"I had to be very careful about my diet and could eat only very light foods. These did not seem to nourish me, and instead of getting better every day I was just at a standstill, and every one began to fear a relapse. One day while lying in bed very much discouraged my sister, who was reading to me from the paper, read an article about Grape-Nuts, and we decided to send for a package.

"From the very first meal of Grape-Nuts I began to improve, strength came in bounds and leaps, with the result that I was soon out of bed; my change for the better seemed marvelous. My mind is clear and strong and my body sturdy. I am now en'liely recovered." Name given by Postum

Maximum temperature past twenty-four hours, 84; a year ago, 86.

Weather conditions and general forecast The high pressure area in the interior of the country continues to dominate weather conditions, and, as a consequence, temperatures are considerably below the seasonal average between the two great mountain ranges. Light frost occurred in portions of Minnesota, South Dakota, Nebraska, west-ern Kansas and northwestern Iowa. In the extreme northwest pressure is falling rapid-ly and temperatures are higher.

There have been showers during the past twenty-four hours in the Atlantic and gulf states, lake region and upper Mississippi valley, and the middle and southern districts from the Rocky mountains westward.

The river at St. Louis this morning stands at 37.9 feet and is falling slowly. Below at 37.9 feet and is falling slowly. Below St. Louis it continues to rise, Cairo this morning reporting a stage of 43.1 feet, and Memphis 30.6 feet. No changes are indicated in forecasts previously issued.

The high area in the interior will continue its eastward movement and fair tinue its eastward movement, and fair weather with pleasant temperature may, therefore, be expected for the next few days over the east and south. It will, however, be quite cool tonight.

On the middle and south Atlantic coast winds will be light to fresh west to northwest; on the east gulf coast light to fresh northerly, and on the lower lakes fresh northerly.

Colored Youth Loses Right Hand Under Car Wheels.

Lewis Grayson, colored, eighteen years old, fell from a freight train near the south end of the Long bridge yesterday after noon. His right hand was caught beneath the wheels and cut off. The injured boy was removed to the Emergency Hospital, where a surgical operation was performed and the patient was sent to a ward. His home is at 933 F street southwest.

A Remarkable

Detective Story

of Washington.

The Filigree Ball By ANNA KATHERINE GREEN.

Mr. Mullowny is the prosecutor in the Police Court. His experience and ability make him an expert on detective situations. Of "The Filigree Ball" he says: 8

"The Filigree Ball" is a well-written, clean detective story. The facts and circumstances surrounding the weird, tragic and mysterious deaths in an old house arouse and keep alive an intense interest from start to finish. In following the clues of two detectives jealous of each other one loses sight of the horror of crime, where circumstantial evidence is at fault, and you finish the book agreeably surprised at the ingenuity of the author, and with tender sympathy for the dead, and pleasure at the well-merited happiness of the living.

ALEX. R. MULLOWNY,
Assist. U. S. Attorney.

Assistant U. S. District Attorney.

The first instalment of "The Filigree Ball" will be published in The Evening Star next Saturday, June 13, and continue in the daily issues until completed.
